Application Essay #1

Think about a situation in which you were a leader, either by your initiative, creativity, or courage. How did you display your leadership skills? In what particular way or ways were you successful? What, if anything, might you have done better? What did you learn from the experience?

Your essay should not be more than 1,500 words in length and should be typed and submitted electronically as its own separate Word document. At the beginning of the document, please type your name, the date, and the essay number and question. At the end of the document, please indicate the word count of your essay; the Watson Admission Committee requires strict adherence to the 1,500-word limit.

Application Essay #2

What are your core values? What people or events shaped your values? What do you hope to achieve in your life, and how might your core values contribute to this achievement?

Your essay should not be more than 1,500 words in length and should be typed and submitted electronically as its own separate Word document. At the beginning of the document, please type your name, the date, and the essay number and question. At the end of the document, please indicate the word count of your essay; the Watson Admission Committee requires strict adherence to the 1,500-word limit.

Dear Colleague:

The Jeannette K. Watson Fellowship will guarantee successful candidates three summers of paid, challenging, and carefully supervised internships, aimed at enhancing the students' education and life choices. Students compete for nominations from their home campus. Each campus may submit up to four nominees. Fifteen Fellows will be selected in a final competition involving twelve New York City colleges. The Watson Fellowship seeks to identify candidates of demonstrated leadership, integrity, creativity, a capacity to initiate and to follow through, skills in working in groups, and a commitment to building a better society.

How long have you known the candidate? Please comment on the candidate from your experience in relation to the attributes the Watson Fellowship seeks. Please return your letter in the envelope provided to the Watson Campus Representative by the deadline. Since each school sets its own internal deadline, the applicant is responsible for telling you the due date at her/his college.

(You may append this form to another sheet if you wish.)
